

Dianne A Evans

Dianne earned her degree in business at Bryant University in the early 1970's. She ran a successful home based business. She married her husband Dick in 1984 where she worked with him in their Computer Consulting business training individuals and businesses in various computer applications. She has been full-time in ministry since 1999.

They reside in their home in Port Charlotte, FL. Between them they have five children and many grandchildren. They have a vacation home in Monticello, KY.

In 1991 their life took a new turn and they began a journey that changed them forever. The Lord healed Dianne from Crohn's disease.

They are both ordained ministers formally Senior Pastor's of the Celebration House a church in RI. They are currently overseers of a Bible Discovery Group in FL. They are Healing Evangelists and move in a prophetic healing ministry and minister at various churches and parachurch organizations as the Lord leads them.

Dianne has written a number of books beginning with My Journey from Crohn's to Christ about her life and miraculous healing in 1991. Since then she has finished Healthy Living Made Simple! and is currently working with her husband on a Healing Handbook.

You can find weekly messages from her and more about their ministry at Dianne's website, www.dianneevans.org.
