

KY Testimonies July 2016

I was able to pray with many present. With a woman whose son had a spot on lung. We agreed in prayer as I commanded that spot to be gone and for thinking to be with the mind of Christ and not to believe what the enemy was putting into both their minds. For by His stripes they are healed already.

A woman had arthritic pain in both of her feet. I cast out the pain and the spirit of arthritis. Then I had her get up and walk. As she took that risk and put one foot in front of the other the pain lessened and lessened. I had her pray for herself, twice and all remaining pain was gone. Then I reminded her that she had the authority in her, Jesus in her, to pray for herself at home. Not to beg God, but to use her authority to commanded the pain to go.

Next to her was woman with blood clotting in her right calf. She said it was from her body making too much potassium. I took authority over the clotting and the production of potassium commanding its production to be normal from now on and for the clotting to dissolve in her leg.

Then a woman came forth with chest pains. Interestingly she has been camping with her family and was not planning on attending church today. She had thoughts of me during the week and come this morning knew she had to come to church at Jesus would heal her. I had her lay her hands over her heart and I placed my hands on hers. I commanded a strong heart and for all chest pain to leave. It left. Thank you, Jesus.

Prayed for one of the workers at the soup kitchen who was fighting congestion. I placed my hand with permission on the back of her lungs and commanded the congestion out as well as the spirit of infirmity. For clear lungs in the name of Jesus. I could feel the Holy Spirit working and see relief coming. Thank you, Jesus.

A man was telling me about his shingles. I prayed with him commanding shingles to go and for the itching to stop. For spirit of infirmity to be gone.

Another man heard from his sister who lives in another state. She asked to come live with him and his wife. We prayed for him to have wisdom to know the right way to go. Then an older Woman fell coming in the door. We helped her up and a couple of the women patched her up. I laid hands on her commanding healing of those scrapes and for pain to go. In Jesus name.

Wednesday morning I prayed for a woman who was telling me about “her” arthritis. I asked her to not claim it as her’s and commanded the spirit of arthritis to go and all pain to go. Thank you, Jesus.

I did the devotional this morning and talked about how God loves them, about His grace and forgiveness. Was able to pray for a few people. Increased work for a self-employed man and his wife, a place to live for a man, and the same for a woman. I commanded healing for a man with back and knee pain. When he stood up most all the pain was gone! Thank you, Jesus.

Thursday evening at a local church I was able to pray with the man with the infection in his leg last week. Leg is fine. Tonight he had a knot behind his left ear. I testified about someone who had a knot on their foot and God removed it. I had him lay his hand on the knot and I commanded in the name of Jesus for it to be gone. Prayed twice and know that it will fall off as it did with the others I have prayed for.

Had a slow leak in one of my tires so I stopped to have it fixed. A woman was waiting for her car to be worked on and as we talked she began to cough. I asked if I could pray for her and she said of course I could. So I laid my hand in her back and commanded the spirit of allergies to leave and for her lungs to be clear in the name of Jesus.

Monday evening prayer we had more than the usual this evening. A woman came in needs of healing. Migraines, back pain, arthritis, fibromyalgia, and more. We all laid hands on her and one of men commanded healing as did I when he finished. We had her walk it out and then I had her lay her own hands on herself. Later she told us she felt fire in her arms. We told her that was Holy Spirit healing her. Thank you Jesus for using us tonight.

Woman I had laid hands with for her knee in the morning was doing well this evening. The man whose wife was in the hospital was told she was shutting down. A few of us prayed with him and consoled him. I commanded a creative miracle in her life and another woman testified of the miracle Jesus had done in her body just a few years ago.

The woman that came Jesus a couple of weeks ago was baptised last week in this service. She had been a changed person ever since that night she gave her life to Jesus.

Wednesday morning a woman with shoulder, nerve pain, legs giving out and more. Laid hands on her for complete healing and for all pain to leave. Another lady, in her eighties, needed healing throughout her body. Another with lower back pain. With permission I laid hands on her lower back. I commanded the back to be healed and for all pain to leave. Some of it left and she wanted to walk away. I stopped her and we prayed again and all pain left. Tears came as she raised her hands and shouted "the pain is all gone". Thank you Jesus for what you did today.

Thursday morning I prayed for a number of issues. A young girl going for tests next week. Liver issues so the doctor said. We all held hands while I declared a new liver into her body. Thank you Jesus for perfect health. Good report about the woman we prayed for who is in the hospital. Her kidneys are now working and expect her to be home in a few days. Thank you Lord for reversing situation and bringing healing to her body.

Thursday evening I was able to pray for a woman who I felt was hurting inside. I prayed for the peace of God to all on her. Holy Spirit was all over her as tears streamed down her face.

As I walked into church a woman was up front with stomach pain asking the pastor for prayer. He saw me come in and asked me forward to pray with her. I had her place her hand where the pain was and asked permission to lay my hand on her. I commanded all pain to go in the name of Jesus. And for total healing from the top of her head to the soles of her feet. All pain left. Praise God. After service was over her Husband told me she also had kidney problems. I held her hand and commanded a creative miracle of new kidneys. Praise God.

Along with a number of other pastors in the room I was asked to bring a message. I spoke about Grace in a quick message and was well received. A woman pastor came in just before the last pastor was called forward to speak. She said she could not come foraged because it was difficult for her to walk with gout. After service I felt let to go and pray with her. Her knee ankles and feet were in pain. With permission I knelt down and laid my hands on an ankle and her right knee. I commanded healing. For gout to go for the knee to be healed for spirit of infirmity to leave all in the name of Jesus. We prayed three times and most of the pain was gone. The last time I instructed her on how to pray. I reminded her who was in her and about the authority and power resident within us. Praise Jesus for your mighty work today.

Monday morning a woman who was in the hospital last week who the doctors said had a kidney that was failing was back home for the weekend and in this morning for food. Praise Jesus for her healed kidney.

A woman was walking poorly with a cane. She asked for prayer. I had her sit down to check her legs. The left was about three inches shorter than the right. She also told me of sciatica pain. Jesus grew out that leg. I commanded the sciatica and pain to leave. She stood up and all pain was gone. She walked out carrying her cane.

Another had a knee that would come out on her. I sat her down and both legs were even. I commanded the muscles and ligaments in that knee to be working correctly and for Any pain to go and for the knee never to pop out again.

A man had pain in his lower left back from lifting something too heavy yesterday. I laid my hand on his back and commanded the pain to go and when I pulled away he told me he felt lots of heat. I reminded him this was the Holy Spirit healing him

Tuesday morning the lady that had the cane yesterday was without it and in no pain today!

Tuesday evening one lady told me she was not feeling well. I asked her what the problem was and she told me IBS. So in the name of Jesus I spoke to that irritable bowel syndrome and commanded it to leave, for her intestines to be pink and normal; working correctly. Thank you Jesus.

Prayed for a woman with swollen feet. And another with bad kidneys. She was supposed to see a doctor about starting dialysis. Prayed a creative miracle. That she receive new kidneys. And that she be completely healed from the top of her head to Bottom of her feet. Holy spirit brought tears to her eyes.

Thursday morning I gave the devotional. Prayed for a young man with a half left lung. Commanded a new lung pure in every way. Later I cast out arthritis and pain and for the middle finger on his left hand he could not bend. All pain left and he could bend that finger. Praise God. A woman with pain in the left of her neck. Pain left. Woman with cane the other day still without it. Yeah God.

Thursday evening I was able to pray for a man who had a minor stroke a few days ago. His speech was affected. Prayed for complete restoration of everything damage and for his speech back to normal.

Prayed with a woman with a pain in right back of her neck which she had for a while. With permission i placed my fingers on the spot and commanded stress and anxiety to leave. I spoke directly to the pain and cast it out. Some left so i prayed again in the name of Jesus. It totally left. Praise jesus.

After Sunday morning service a three woman stayed an extra day to attend this mornings service expecting to receive healing. One was dealing with cancer. Another had pain in her leg. Heart problems. Diabetes. Kidney issues. I cast out the spirits of diabetes, arthritis, and pain. I spoke a creative miracle for a new heart and pancreas. Healing in her kidneys. Then I spoke to the pain in her leg and told it to leave. I had her walk a few steps and was told it was better. Better? Pain gone? No it was a little less but she was believing for it. I told her no He was healing her today. We prayed again. It lessened. Then I had her put her own hand where the pain was and told her what to pray. She said it was better. I asked if that meant the pain was all gone and she said yes. Praise God! A woman i had declared a new heart in last month testified she went to the doctor and he said her heart was fine. Yeah God.

I prayed with one woman with neck and back issues. Plates and pins and removed and replaced discs. With permission I placed my hands on the side of the head and commanded total healing. For full restoration of all damaged areas. For all muscles ligaments tendons and nerves be healed. For pain to be gone. In the name of Jesus.

Monday morning the woman with the right shoulder issue the other day is totally healed. No more pain. A woman in great need came in for food. I asked if she need prayer and she told me of the pain in her back. With permission I laid my hand on her back and commanded healing, for all the discs to be restored and or pain to leave. I had her stand and she was still in tremendous pain. I prayed again without visible results. But I know Holy Spirit is working on all those issues healing her body, freeing her from all her burdens. Thank you Jesus.

Tuesday morning I prayed for a woman the doctors say had fibromyalgia and rheumatoid arthritis. I placed my hand on her and commanded the electrical and chemical frequencies in her body to be in harmony and in balance and for all the good cells to devour the bad cells and for these spirits to go in the name of Jesus. She also had pain in her neck. I placed a finger on the spot and commanded the pain to go and she told me she could feel it going until it left. Thank you Jesus.

Another woman is scheduled for surgery next month. We declared her healed now so when the doctors see her there is nothing to perform surgery on. That Jesus performs the surgery now. Prayed for the father of a young woman who is having heart problems. We declared a new heart. In jesus name.

Tuesday evening at second life a lady whose shoulder was healed the other day told me tonight that Arthur was back. She meant arthritis and I told her he could not come back. He was sent away. I had her put her hand on the shoulder and command it to go in the name of Jesus. It left.

A young lady was having a migraine. With permission i placed both hands in her head and commanded it to leave. She was much better. I then discovered she also has scoliosis and one leg it shorter. I will deal with these in the morning.

Grew out a young lady's legs an inch and commanded scoliosis to go. Prayed with another for a friend in trouble.

Thursday morning I prayed for a number of guests. One of the workers had pain in her hands. I commanded the muscles ligaments tendons and nerves to be healed. For the wrist bones to be strengthened. In the name of Jesus. For no need of an operation in the future for jesus has completed the work. And by His stripes she is healed. Thank you Jesus.

Thursday evening during a call for prayer a man asked for prayer for the pain he was having in his back and legs. Later we were all called to the altar and I went to him and asked if i could lay hands in his back. He said yes and i put my hand on the small of his back and commanded all pain to go and for his back to be healed. Also for the spirit if deafness in his left ear to ho and for his hearing to be restored. When alter time was over we both got up from our knees and his back pain was gone he still had pain in his thighs so i placed my hands on them and commanded all pain yo go. When he stood up all pain in his body had left. Thank you jesus.

I felt led to go to a woman I had prayed for a couple of weeks ago. Turns out she had pain and stiffness in her lower left back area. She had me place my hand on that spot and command the pain to go and for full restoration of all that was damaged years ago in an accident. Her face told the story Jesus took the pain and stiffness away . Praise God.

Friday morning a young man came in asking for prayer. His back was hurting. I sat him down and the Lord grew out his left leg an inch as I commanded healing in his back and for all pain to go. I had him stand and walk and he told us all pain was gone. Prayed for an older man for pain in his back. Some relief.
