We commanded again and all the pain left. Praise Jesus.

With permission I laid my hand on hers and she held her chest. I spoke to this COPD and commanded it out of her body and for her breathing to be normal. For her to be able to take deep breaths. For her lungs to be clear. For a creative miracle in her heart. For her circulatory system working correctly for her blood pressure to be normal. All in the name of Jesus. Her breathing was better and when I had her stand up and walk she breathed normally; thank you Jesus.
